

DEVELOP A LOCAL OSHA TRAINER APPLICATION

OSHA Authorized Trainer status must be obtained during the calendar year in which the application is approved. OSHA 503 reimbursement is only available for locals actively teaching the OSHA 10-Hour General Industry with Focus on the Entertainment Industry curriculum. OSHA 502 reimbursement is only available for locals actively teaching the OSHA 10-Hour Construction with Focus on the Entertainment Industry curriculum.

The local union president, secretary treasurer, BA, or training coordinator must complete, sign, and submit this application. The officer submitting this application must be an officer other than the individual listed as a trainer. Email the application at least a month ahead of the training dates to applications@iatsetrainingtrust.org. If you are requesting reimbursement to develop a trainer for both General Industry and Construction, please submit separate applications.
