This curriculum is distributed in conjunction with a training class provided by the IATSE Entertainment and Exhibition Industries Training Trust Fund ("IATSE Training Trust"). The IATSE and IATSE Training Trust are committed to maintaining a safe and healthful working environment. These materials and the related class have been designed to that end.

Receipt of this curriculum and the signature on the course sign-in sheet confirms the recipient's agreement that:

- It is the individual attendee's responsibility to adhere to all safety rules and regulations during the IATSE Training Trust class and in applying skills learned in the class and this curriculum.
- The individual attendee shall hold harmless all instructors or contractors involved with this class for any injury or misunderstanding resulting from attending the class.

By receiving these materials and signing the course sign-in sheet, the recipient also acknowledges that:

- Complete mastery of this topic may require further training outside of the IATSE Training Trust's class. The training will identify some of the common safety and health issues in the entertainment and exhibition industries, the regulations that apply to these hazards, and your rights to have the hazards addressed by the employer. This training does not qualify you, as an employee, to fix any safety problems or to declare a workplace either safe or unsafe. That requires the opinion of a qualified professional.
- Completion of this class or review of these materials does not guarantee employment or higher pay.
- Information presented in this class should be used as a general guideline and is not intended as a legal interpretation of any federal, state, or local safety standard.

Although the information contained in this class has been compiled from sources believed to be reliable, the IATSE Training Trust, the local receiving the curriculum, and the instructor make no guarantee nor warranty as to, and assume no responsibility for, the accuracy, sufficiency, or completeness of information provided in this curriculum or related class(es).

This is a safety awareness course and does not qualify anyone to be a COVID Compliance Officer. Participation in this training does not relieve employers from any of their on-site training obligations under state or federal OSHA or other regulations.

Receipt of these materials and signature on the course sign-in sheet indicates that the student/instructor has acknowledged, understood, and agreed to the above terms.
