

IATSE TRAINING TRUST FUND PRESENTS

TRAIN THE TRAINER

Teaching and Presentation Techniques

This workshop is designed to take IATSE workers who are experts in their craft and give them the teaching techniques they need to deliver successful trainings.

Over the course of two days, topics such as effective instruction and presentation techniques, curriculum design, adult learning theory, and coaching skills will be addressed. The workshop will also allow for ample time to practice the skills being addressed.

IATSE ENTERTAINMENT & EXHIBITION INDUSTRIES TRAINING TRUST FUND

TRAIN THE TRAINER: TEACHING & PRESENTATION TECHNIQUES APPLICATION

NASHVILLE, TN | MARCH 16-17, 2019

The officer completing and submitting this application must be an officer other than the individual listed as a trainer on this application. The nominated trainer must sign this form, so it is clear they have full knowledge that the local intends to send them to this workshop and they agree to train for their local and other locals if requested.

Space is limited in this training, and attendance is initially limited to three trainers per local. Nominees should be IATSE workers who want to become new safety or craft skills trainers for your local that you will use to conduct safety or craft skills training or individuals who already conduct safety or craft skills training for the local. Nominees must be working under IATSE agreements or be active IATSE members to be eligible for this course. Locals may nominate additional participant trainers who will be placed on a wait list. Once your application is received and seats are confirmed, you and the trainers you have nominated will receive confirmation emails.

The two-day workshop itself is free of charge for participants. The IATSE Training Trust Fund cannot, however, cover the costs for travel, lodging*, meals, or per diems associated with travel or participation in this workshop. *The TTF has a hotel subsidy available to qualifying locals.
