RE: NOTICE TO ALL PARTICIPANTS

Training Trust Plans that provide exclusively apprenticeship training benefits, other training benefits or a combination of apprenticeship and other training benefits are exempt from all reporting and disclosure requirements of ERISA if they file a brief notice with the Department of Labor as prescribed under final regulations. Under these final regulations, the notice must be made available to employees of employers who may be eligible to enroll in any course or program of study offered under the Training Trust Plan.

The Training Trust Plan meets the notification requirements of the Department of Labor if each employer makes the required information available to employees by mail or personal delivery or by posting the notice in a conspicuous location at all job sites.

Enclosed is the notice which contains the following required information:

1. The name of the Training Trust Plan;
2. The Employer Identification Number of the Training Trust Plan sponsor;
3. The name of the Training Trust Plan Administrator; and
4. The name and location of an office or person from whom an interested individual can obtain a description of the procedure by which to enroll in any course or program of study offered under the Training Trust Plan.

Dear Applicant:

We are pleased to inform you that upon review of your application for tax-exempt status we have determined that you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code. Because this letter could help resolve any questions regarding your exempt status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

Please see enclosed Publication 4221-NC, Compliance Guide for Tax-Exempt Organizations (Other than 501(c)(3) Public Charities and Private Foundations), for some helpful information about your responsibilities as an exempt organization.

We have sent a copy of this letter to your representative as indicated in your power of attorney.

Sincerely,

Holly O. Paz
